CoburnWear UtiliBibs are designed for long days on the farm. UtiliBibs are waterproof, comfortable, lightweight, flexible, feature reflective bands for added visibility, and are machine washable.

UtiliBibs have four handy pockets on the chest – one zippered for dry note storage and three featuring hook-and-loop for easy access to pens, phones, glasses and anything else you might need. Two extra-large thigh pockets can hold up to 25 Coburn Microfiber Towels each and are perfect for hanging dip cups and brushes on. Thigh pockets also feature drainage grommets.

UtiliBibs were designed with ease of use and the perfect fit in mind. UtiliBibs feature easy-on, easy-off strap clips, requiring only the push of your thumb for removal. Large, adjustable waist straps allow for three levels of comfort. UtiliBib's zippered, ankle openings enable you to slide into your UtiliBibs with your boots on. Three bottom leg snaps ensure the correct pant leg fit to keep your pants clean.
